The Baptists: The Modern Era - Vol 3 Tom J. Nettles

In the final part of Tom Nettle's Trilogy, he traces some of the modern movements with the Baptist diaspora. Nettles looks at the downgrade in the British Church through the lenses of C.H. Spurgeon and John Clifford and the decline in America looking at the influences of A. H. Strong, E. Y. Mullins and the Baptist Modernists. Key outcomes are explored that inevitably formulate out of Baptist theology (e.g. separation of church and state). The 'renewed contours' of the present day Baptist movement are also covered with particular reference to recent changes in the Southern Baptist Convention. This series is a triumph! It serves as a necessary addition to the story of the church.
