Kevin Wincouser spent the last decade trying to escape the pain of his parents' death. He's thrown himself into the rodeo circuit with great success. Now, though, having suffered a head injury, he realizes he may never be able to ride again. As Kevin recuperates, Lara Donahue finds her childhood hero's heart is far more wounded than his body. Lara must carefully guard her own heart - she's determined that the man she loves will love God first, and her second. But that's clearly not Kevin's plan.
