Antología (Spanish Edition) Rufino Blanco Fombona

Rufino Blanco Fombona (Venezuela, 1874-Argentina, 1944), fue un narrador, publicista y ensayista. Como editor fundó entre 1910 y 1920 un proyecto editorial latinoamericano al que llamó la Biblioteca Americana. Fue considerado como una gloria de las letras hispanoamericanas. Era un autor combativo polemista y su impetuosa vida política, la mayor parte de ella en Europa como perseguido y desterrado por el gobierno de Juan Vicente Gómez, dejó una profunda huella en España y los países iberoamericanos. Como fiel seguidor de la concepción del arte y la literatura que había forjado Rubén Darío, consideraba que la originalidad y fuerza de un escritor se sostenía en la calidad de su obra poética. En este libro la reflexión sobre el temperamento español coincide con apreciaciones sobre Sarmiento, González Prada, Darío y Lugones.
