This ain't no grand-ma's cookbook or the Ladies Auxiliary either. This is just a regular guys' cookbook written by a regular guy. The recipes contained in this book are basic and easy to prepare, yet delicious nonetheless. They are dishes that are served as daily specials or featured on the menu at the author's sports bar/restaurant, McCabe's, in Liberty, New York. They are approved by the toughest critics, the customers.

Sandwiched between the recipes is the author's collection of some of his favourite jokes. Included in the recipes is the author's sometimes strange, cynical and humorous outlook on friends, drinking and relationships.

Though predominantly written for men, any woman who appreciates the nature of the beast that man is will appreciate the humour and the recipes within.
