Lavender Aurora: The Inherence of Love J.F. Ellington

Maggie McNeil Rivers was born and raised on one of the largest ranches in Texas. The ranch was her home and life for many years. In her protected life she never dreamt of the reality of the outside world would venture into her life. The inevitable did come and change her life forever through a series of events that challenged Maggie. The men in her life failed to possess the same morals as her father taught her throughout her young life. Her husband, Cal Rivers, their best friend Matt Daniels, and old high school friend, Brad Benson and even the foreman, Sam, influenced her since her father's death. Her best friend of years Randi Ellis betrayed their friendship showing her true motivation. She loved each and every one for different reasons and in different ways. Maggie's strength is tested and with God's help she can endure.
