Los Vagabundos (Literatura Reino de Cordelia nº 9) (Spanish Edition) Maxim Gorki, Sara Gutiérrez

Entre 1895 y 1899, Gorki escribió relatos y novelas cortas donde recogía su propia experiencia personal como vagabundo por la gélida Rusia, arrastrando una vida miserable y trabajando ocasionalmente para conseguir un mendrugo de pan con el que engañar al hambre y un harapo para burlar el frío. Las historias de vagabundos, a los que describe como seres libres que se oponen individualmente a las enormes diferencias de clases de la sociedad rusa, le fueron llevando desde el realismo hacia un romanticismo reivindicativo que marcaría en el futuro su literatura y le llevaría a apoyar abiertamente la revolución de 1917. Sara Gutiérrez ha seleccionado y traducido seis de las piezas más brillantes dedicadas por Gorki a los vagabundos, algunas de ellas inéditas en español y otras que dejaron de editarse hace años.
