Tratado del Ramadan (De La Coleccion Risale-I Nur) (Spanish Edition) Bediuzzaman Said Nursi

El ayuno en el sagrado mes de Ramadán es uno de los cinco pilares más importantes del Islam, al mismo tiempo que uno de sus más grandes símbolos. Muchos de sus propósitos están relacionados con el Señorío de Dios y dar gracias por Su generosidad, así como la autodisciplina y la vida individual y colectiva de la humanidad. El Creador Compasivo desea que los seres humanos Le agradezcan las generosidades que les han sido otorgadas por Él, mientras que el despilfarro es contrario a la acción de dar gracias, e implica un desprecio de la generosidad de tal manera que causa la perdición. Sin embargo, la frugalidad significa un respeto valioso a cambio de la generosidad.
