All'ombra del delitto (Italian Edition) Enzo Ferrea

A Genova, in una villa privata, si tiene un grande ricevimento in onore del sindaco. Tra i tanti ospiti illustri è presente la celebre cantante lirica Flora Calò, in attesa del debutto in Tosca al teatro Carlo Felice e l'investigatore Alessandro Pace. Sarà proprio lui a scoprire in una stanza della villa il cadavere di un ricco finanziere con la testa fracassata da una scultura di Botero. La festa è interrotta. Iniziano le indagini. Nelle tasche dell'uomo assassinato viene trovato un cartoncino con impresso in rosso il numero uno. Durante la prima di Tosca viene pugnalato il padrone della villa in cui si era svolta la festa e da una tasca del suo abito da sera spunta un cartellino con impresso in rosso il numero due. Chi ha preso di mira i partecipanti a quel ricevimento? Perché l'assassino numera i suoi delitti con numeri di morte? Non è che l'inizio di un mystery appassionante fatto da personaggi che non si dimenticano, come il bellissimo e pericoloso Sveto che innamora di sé donne e uomini, Flora Calò, famosa e sola, il giovane Paolo e il suo amore disperato, e tanti altri compreso il destino, che muove e si fa gioco di tutti e chiude il romanzo con un finale sorprendente. La soluzione è una sfida che l'autore lancia, nella più classica delle tradizioni, al suo investigatore, al suo alter ego, il gatto Camillo, e a tutti i lettori.
