Five Star Christian Fiction - A Place to Call Home Ruth Glover

Book 6 of The Wildrose Series

Could the Dalton family truly settle down anywhere? Lolly Dalton had never known anything but the nomadic lifestyle her father's restless wandering had provided. But everything changed when they arrived in Wildrose, which seemed the very essence of "home." Determined not to pull up stakes again, Lolly solicits a marriage proposal from a wealthy widower. But can she ignore the true stirrings of her heart?

A Place to Call Home is Ruth Glover's sixth book in the Wildrose Series, and she is a contributor to numerous Christian periodicals. Mrs. Glover was raised in the Saskatchewan bush country where she experienced firsthand the dangerous beauty that she describes so richly in her books. The author and her husband, Hal, currently live in The Dalles, Oregon, where he is a retired pastor. The couple have three children and several grandchildren.
