A picture can say a thousand words and the images caught on camera during the Victorian and Edwardian periods provide a fascinating insight into the lives of Britons during this time. Take a step back between 1840 and 1910 and explore the pastimes, hobbies, sports and other entertainments enjoyed by the Victorians and Edwardians through the rich variety of photographs and vintage postcards in this beautiful album. A world we usually see in monochrome or sepia is presented here in vivid colour, bringing the Victorian and Edwardian people a little closer to us. 128 pages are packed with images of people on the golf course, playing croquet and tennis, sports days and football matches. We see visits to the zoo, cruises on river boats and paddle steamers, fairground and pleasure beach excursions, days at the races and other, more unusual pursuits, all of which tell the story of social life 100 to 160 years ago. Go on, take a look!

Susan Douglas:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this The Victorians and Edwardians at Play (Shire Library) can make you experience more interested to read.
