Did you know that before the spread of Messiah's message, Gentiles often sacrificed their children to their pagan gods?

Did you know that there were temple prostitutes, working around the religious buildings in the Roman Empire to "help" citizens worship?

You do know that the first followers of Yeshua (Jesus) were Jews. And everyone knows by now that Jews spread his message through the ministry of Paul, Peter, and the other apostles. But most people don't know that these early Messianic Jews were influential in Ancient Judea, Syria, Asia Minor, Greece, Italy, Spain and the North African cities of Carthage, Cyrene and Alexandria. Not only were they influential, their impact transformed the behavior of the known world.
