C. H. Spurgeon's Prayers (Classic Reprint) C. H. Spurgeon

Introduction THE day on which a volume of C. H. Spurgeon's Pulpit Prayers appears is a day to be desired. Many will now rejoice to see that day. Decidedly this selection of the great preachers' prayers supplies a want. Many of us have long hoped for such a volume; and now we welcome it with warm gratitude. Lovers of C. H. Spurgeon will delight in this treasury of devotion. They will not open the book without keen anticipation, and assuredly they will not close it with disappointment. It was memorable to hear this incomparable divine when he preached. It was often even more memorable to hear him pray. Dr. John Cairns, the golden-mouthed preacher and scholar, much as he rejoiced in C. H. Spurgeon's sermons, rejoiced yet more in his prayers. Many can bear a similar witness. Who talked with God as Spurgeon did? His congregational prayers and I heard many are always echoing in my grateful heart. They are sweet and luminous, in the memory, as angel presences. Never did I hear him pray without adoringly saying, Lord, it is good for us to be here.
