Real Love Barry Goodfield

Love is a little word that we make big, and real love is important to everyone.

Each stage of our development changes our definition of it. It is our constantly changing barometer about where we are at any moment of our lives. It is a lifelong quest for all of us, male and female, young and old.

A few simple actions and strategies can help find real love that grows over time. This book offers insights that might explain a past heartache and make a good relationship better. Little things count. They add up to a simple, clear message: "I not only love you, but I also want to care for you and your needs on a daily basis." This is what heads toward the Love Boat rather than the Titanic.

If I have learned anything from failed relationships, a doctorate in psychology and thousands of hours doing my own brand of therapy.
