Caregiver or crook? Cadi Trent knows personal tragedy firsthand. As a child, her family was swept away in a flash flood, and only she survived. As an adult, she's an EMT who devotes her life to helping others. When her team, Disaster Busters, is called to a crisis in a nearby town, Cadi is baffled by the hostility she receives from an intriguing sheriff's deputy. As a law enforcement officer, Frank Parker has seen it all. But he wasn't savvy enough to see through the deception wrought on his community by a "charitable organization" after a tornado ripped through town three years ago. Now, older and wiser, he's determined not to trust anyone. Not even Cadi, the lovely Disaster Buster he can't seem to avoid. How can Cadi love a man who has no confidence in basic truths about her? Only God can help Frank learn to trust-and live-again.
